GUIDE TO TEMPORARY SIGNS

SECTION 6.2.1F SIGNS

Temporary permits for signs advertising a special event may be issued by the Zoning Enforcement Officer for not more than 25 consecutive days per calendar year upon approval of a Zoning Permit prior to placement. A Building Permit shall not be required and only the Zoning Permit fee shall be charged.

A new business coming to Newington for the first time or an existing business relocating or expanding within Newington may request an additional 20 days of promotional advertising.

Temporary signs shall only be displayed on the property of the business advertising the sales and/or event and cannot be placed in the State or Town street right of way.

Temporary signs shall NOT be lighted, flashing, digital or rotating, and may be denied if determined by the Zoning Officer to be a hazard to the public.

Temporary signs may be pennants, streamers or banners attached to the building promoting the sale event and ground signs, not to exceed two, not higher than 10 feet and larger than 50 square feet per side. Not more than one ground mounted cold air inflatable sign, not to exceed 18 feet in height is permitted. No roof mounted sign or cold air inflatable tethered to the roof are permitted.
